COMMEMORATION:

Centenary Celebration 100 Years of Racing.
Venue Hamilton Park Racecourse.
Occasion . . . Jordan Electrics Glasgow Stakes Centenary Racenight.
Presented As Commemorative Racecard.

OFFICIAL COMMEMORATIVE RACECARD

WELCOME

A very warm welcome to our Glasgow Stakes Centenary Racenight, and on behalf of myself, Fiona and the Board of Director's, thank you for joining us as we mark the historic occasion of 100 years of racing here at Hamilton Park.

History is being made this evening as we celebrate our 100 year centenary of racing being staged here on Bothwell Road, with tonight's fixture mirroring our first ever raceday on a Friday afternoon 100 years ago, although racing was first staged in the area at Chatelherault in 1782. We have created this commemorative racecard to share the key moments in our history and to recognise the contribution of those who have come before us. From the first racing on this site, the first ever evening fixture in the UK, the development of the grandstand and of course the addition of our Hampton by Hilton Hamilton Park hotel, this racecard reflects the highlights of Hamilton Park history through the decades.

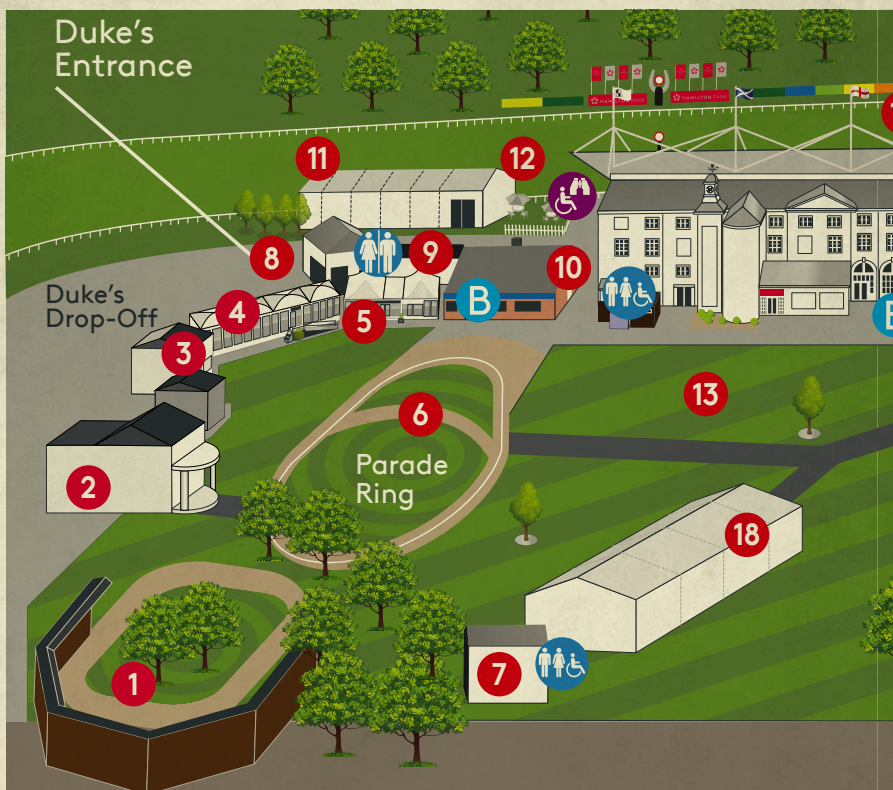

If there's one thing that stands out in the history of this wonderful venue, it's the people who have worked tirelessly over the last century to continually develop the resort into the thriving business that it is today, and Fiona and I feel privileged to be the current custodians of Hamilton Park. Since being given the opportunity to lead this team in 2022, we have strived to continue the development of the resort, with a renewed focus on improving the quality of the racing that we stage as well as the experience and facilities that we offer to our visitors and participants. In turn we believe this will continue to enhance our reputation within the sport and put Hamilton Park in a strong position for the long-term future.

Enjoy the evening and thank you all for your continued support of Hamilton Park – here's to the next 100 years!

THE BEGINNING OF HAMILTON PARK ON BOTHWELL ROAD

Hamilton Park on Bothwell Road began on Friday 16 and Saturday 17 July 1926, but the vision for the racecourse had started many years earlier.

Following the closure of the original Hamilton racecourse in 1907, racing disappeared from Hamilton for almost two decades. Determined to bring the sport back, Sir Loftus Bates, Colonel Robertson-Aikman and Lord Hamilton of Dalzell led an ambitious project to create a brand-new racecourse unlike any other in Britain.

More than £100,000 was raised to fund the development, a remarkable investment for its time. The course itself was carefully designed in its distinctive "buttonhook" shape to avoid areas affected by mining subsidence whilst providing excellent viewing for spectators.

When Hamilton Park officially opened in July 1926, over 40,000 racegoers attended the two-day meeting, marking one of the most significant moments in Scottish racing history.

“FROM THE VERY BEGINNING,
HAMILTON PARK WAS BUILT WITH AMBITION.”

Contemporary reports described the facilities as among the most modern in Britain, with an innovative paddock layout and grandstand setting new standards for racecourse design.

One hundred years later, that same spirit of innovation continues to define Hamilton Park.

FIRST EVER EVENING MEETING

HAMILTON PARK

HAS NEVER BEEN AFRAID TO BREAK NEW GROUND

On Friday 18th July 1947, the Lanarkshire Racecourse made history by becoming the first racecourse in Britain to stage an evening race meeting.

The meeting was organised ahead of a Royal visit the following day and attracted around 18,000 spectators, with thousands more returning on Saturday to welcome King George VI, Princess Elizabeth, Princess Margaret and Lieutenant Philip Mountbatten.

(Image above: Lord Hamilton of Dalzell steps forward to greet King George VI at Hamilton Park. Lieutenant Mountbatten (Prince Philip) is also in the image, along with Princess Margaret and Elizabeth descending from the car, on Saturday, July 19, 1947.)

(Image above: King George VI, followed by the two princesses, upon arrival at Hamilton Park Racecourse on Saturday, July 19, 1947.)

The evening meeting was initially viewed as something of an experiment. However, its success transformed the sport forever.

Today, evening racing is enjoyed at racecourses throughout Britain, but it all began here at Hamilton Park.

GLASGOW STAKES

THE PRESTIGE OF THE GLASGOW STAKES

Since arriving at Hamilton Park in 2006, the Glasgow Stakes has become one of Scotland's most prestigious flat races.

Originally staged at York Racecourse, the listed contest was transferred to Hamilton Park as part of a wider commitment to strengthen Scottish racing and bring higher-class competition north of the border.

“ THE RACE REGULARLY ATTRACTS SOME OF BRITAIN’S LEADING TRAINERS AND FUTURE GROUP PERFORMERS. ”

Run over 1 mile 3 furlongs, the race regularly attracts some of Britain's leading trainers and future Group performers.

Today, worth £80,000, the Glasgow Stakes forms the centrepiece of one of Hamilton Park's biggest racedays.

For our centenary year, it is fitting that this prestigious contest once again takes centre stage as we celebrate 100 years of racing on Bothwell Road.

HISTORY

LANARK SILVER BELL HERITAGE

Few races anywhere in the world can trace their heritage as far back as the Lanark Silver Bell.

Believed to date from the early 1600s, the famous trophy is regarded as one of the oldest sporting prizes still contested today.

Although originally run at Lanark Racecourse which closed in 1977, Hamilton Park proudly revived the race in 2008, ensuring this remarkable piece of Scottish sporting history could continue to be celebrated for future generations.

“ THE RACE HAS GONE FROM STRENGTH TO STRENGTH AND IN 2022, WAS UPGRADED TO HERITAGE HANDICAP STATUS.”

Building on its success, the race was awarded Heritage Handicap status in 2022, with prize money of £100,000.

The Silver Bell is widely regarded as one of the oldest sporting trophies in the world and remains a treasured symbol of Scotland's racing heritage. Traditionally believed to have been gifted to the Royal Burgh of Lanark by King William the Lion in 1160, the surviving bell dates from the 17th century.

After being lost for many years, the trophy was rediscovered in 1836 and is now carefully preserved at the Low Parks Museum in Hamilton. Its remarkable journey has cemented its place as one of Scottish sport's most significant and enduring artefacts.

Following the final running of the race at Lanark Racecourse in 1977, the historic Lanark Silver Bell was revived at Hamilton

Park in 2008, ensuring this remarkable piece of Scottish sporting history continues to be celebrated today. Since its return, the race has gone from strength to strength, becoming one of the highlights of the Scottish Flat racing calendar.

“HAMILTON PARK REVIVED THE LANARK SILVER BELL IN 2008, ENSURING THIS REMARKABLE PIECE OF SCOTTISH SPORTING HISTORY CONTINUES TO BE CELEBRATED.”

Today, the Silver Bell represents more than just a prestigious prize. It is a living link between centuries of Scottish sporting tradition and modern racing, connecting the rich heritage of the past with the excitement of the present.

HISTORY

SCOTLAND'S BIGGEST SOCIAL OCCASION

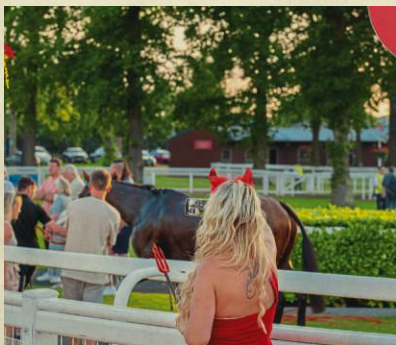

SAINTS AND SINNERS

First staged in 1965, the charity raceday quickly became one of Scotland's biggest social occasions, attracting celebrities, sporting legends and thousands of racegoers whilst raising significant sums for charity.

The inaugural meeting welcomed over 22,000 people (twice the number organisers expected!).

Over the decades, household names including Sean Connery, Kenny Dalglish, Princess Anne, Rikki Fulton and Sir Alexander Gibson have all been associated with the event.

Today, Saints & Sinners continues to combine great racing with fundraising, community spirit and unforgettable entertainment.

INNOVATION AND INVESTMENT

FORMATION OF TRUST AND HAMPTON BY HILTON HOTEL

ALWAYS LOOKING FORWARD

The formation of the Hamilton Park Trust in 1973 secured the long-term future of racing at Hamilton Park. Established by Bill McHarg, the Trust was created with a simple but powerful objective: to continue racing at Hamilton for all time. Unlike many commercial businesses, the Trust has no shareholders. Instead, every surplus generated by the racecourse is reinvested back into Hamilton Park, ensuring continual improvements for Owners, Trainers, racegoers, staff and the local community.

Over the past five decades, this unique model has funded significant investment across the racecourse, from major grandstand redevelopments and award-winning hospitality facilities to the construction of the Hampton by Hilton Hamilton Park hotel, the refurbishment of the Weighing Room, and ongoing enhancements to the racing surface, visitor facilities, and overall raceday experience.

This enduring commitment to reinvestment remains one of the defining principles of Hamilton Park. As we celebrate our centenary, the Trust continues to ensure that every investment made today helps secure a thriving, sustainable, and successful future for generations of racegoers, participants, and the wider local community to come.

A DYNAMIC FORCE

REMEMBERING SIR IAN GOOD

Commissioned in 2026 to mark Hamilton Park's 100th year of racing, this memorial sculpture honours the late Sir Ian Good in recognition of his outstanding contribution to Hamilton Park, Scottish Racing, and the racing industry as a whole.

Sir Ian served on the Board from 1990 and as Chairman from 1999 until his passing in 2023. Under his leadership, Hamilton Park developed into one of the UK's leading independent racecourses, including the addition of the on-site Hampton by Hilton hotel in 2019. He also played a key role nationally as founding Chairman of Scottish Racing, and held senior positions with the Racing Foundation, the Tote, and the Jockey Club.

“ UNDER HIS LEADERSHIP, HAMILTON PARK DEVELOPED INTO ONE OF THE UK'S LEADING INDEPENDENT RACECOURSES. ”

In collaboration with the Good family, the sculpture has been created by renowned sculptor Michael Turner who specialises in creating unique, handcrafted artwork using marine grade stainless steel. With the working title of 'A Dynamic Force', each individual panel of stainless steel has been shaped by hand to create a sculpture that embodies the energy and excitement of horse racing, showcasing the power and grace of the horse in motion alongside the unique harmony that exists between horse and jockey.

“ THE SCULPTURE EMBODIES THE ENERGY AND EXCITEMENT OF HORSE RACING, SHOWCASING THE POWER AND GRACE OF THE HORSE IN MOTION. ”

SIR IAN GOOD MEMORIAL SCULPTURE

“A LASTING TRIBUTE TO SIR IAN GOOD’S VISION, LEADERSHIP, AND LEGACY.”

Located between the Hampton by Hilton Hotel and the Sir Ian Good Grandstand, this sculpture stands as a lasting tribute to his vision, leadership, and legacy.

The design includes subtle tributes to Sir Ian’s life and legacy, so please do visit the sculpture to see them for yourself.

THE FUTURE OF HAMILTON PARK

LOOKING AHEAD TO FUTURE WHILST COMMEMORATING THE PAST

RACING TOWARDS THE FUTURE

Whilst today marks an important milestone, Hamilton Park's story is far from over.

The values established a century ago, innovation, ambition and a commitment to delivering exceptional racing, continue to guide the racecourse today.

Future investment, sustainability, community engagement and creating memorable experiences for every visitor remain at the heart of Hamilton Park's vision.

As we celebrate our centenary, we also look forward with confidence and excitement to the next century of racing on Bothwell Road.

A CENTURY OF RACING

We are proud to celebrate 100 years of racing at Hamilton Park with this special commemorative racecard.
This centenary meeting is both a tribute to our rich heritage and a celebration of everyone who has played a part in making Hamilton Park one of Scotland's premier racecourses.
Here's to the next 100 years.
